

Super Typhoon Haiyan/Yolanda

Online information

- Wikipedia's page on Haiyan/Yolanda. Comprehensive and well-referenced.
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Typhoon_Haiyan
- REACH provides data and analysis to improve humanitarian response.
<https://www.reach-initiative.org/?s=haiyan>
- Bitesize revision summary (Edexcel)
<https://www.bbc.com/bitesize/guides/z9whg82/revision/4>
- Remote sensing imagery from NASA.
<https://earthobservatory.nasa.gov/images/event/82342/typhoon-haiyan>
- Comprehensive information about US Aid provided to the Philippines
<https://www.usaid.gov/haiyan>
- Disasters Emergency Committee (DEC) summary of UK NGO responses.
<https://www.dec.org.uk/article/two-years-on-from-typhoon-haiyan>
- DEC facts and figures about Haiyan and the response.
<https://www.dec.org.uk/articles/facts-and-figures>
- An excellent repository of mapping, data, information and analysis related to the humanitarian relief response.
<https://reliefweb.int/disaster/tc-2013-000139-phl>
- A short article exploring why Haiyan was so deadly
<https://phys.org/news/2018-11-super-typhoon-haiyan-deadly.html>
- MSF response timeline
<https://www.msf.org.uk/timeline-emergency-response-typhoon-haiyan>
- A short, geographical case study
<https://www.internetgeography.net/topics/typhoon-haiyan-case-study/>
- A broad and detailed evaluation of the Red Cross response, including PDF reports, videos, and case studies. Particularly useful are the 3/6/12/24 month reports to show the chronology and changing-nature of the response.
<https://www.redcross.org/about-us/our-work/international-services/haiyan-recovery.html>
- Save the Children's response by the numbers. An interesting facet of the response to explore.

<https://www.savethechildren.org/us/what-we-do/emergency-response/historical-emergencies/typhoon-haiyan>

- A 4-page summary of the EU response to Haiyan http://ec.europa.eu/echo/files/aid/countries/factsheets/philippines_haiyan_en.pdf
- Available maps from GDACS (as used in lesson PPT). NB These are limited due to the age of the event – more recent disasters have significantly greater content and analysis.
<http://www.gdacs.org/maps.aspx?eventid=41058&eventtype=TC>
- The Guardian content on Typhoon Haiyan
<https://www.theguardian.com/world/typhoon-haiyan>
- A broad, media-rich overview of the Typhoon.
<https://www.arcgis.com/apps/Cascade/index.html?appid=bba35e41b8da423498ae3bf461e161c8>
- An overview of impacts soon after the event with links to situation reports and further resources.
<http://www.monitor.czert.info/index.php/virtual-osocc/list-of-emergencies/16893-tropical-cyclone-haiyan-philippines>
- How are disaster relief efforts organised?
<https://business.un.org/en/documents/6852>
- A report on the use of drones in humanitarian action
<https://drones.fsd.ch/wp-content/uploads/2016/11/Drones-in-Humanitarian-Action.pdf>
- Open Aerial map, including NGO drone imagery from the Philippines
<https://map.openaerialmap.org/#/125.00521481037141,11.248736480320868,18?k=4dkegt>