

Peer Assessment Levels

Level 1	I can describe a tree I can explain what the environment is.
Level 2	I can talk about places outside of my local area. I can explain how people are affected by their surroundings. I can use a map to locate places. I can identify some ideas of how trees affect people.
Level 3	I can explain why places are similar and different. I can describe briefly how trees store and use carbon. I can recognise how people damage and improve the environment.
Level 4	I can identify links between places. I can explain some advantages of trees in a fight against climate change. I can demonstrate my own views about the environment.
Level 5	I can use my knowledge, skills and understanding to describe a range of different processes that a tree does. I can recognise the importance of sustainable development. I can suggest relevant geographical questions.
Level 6	I can compare different approaches to managing the environment. I can appreciate the different people have different values and attitudes about their surroundings.
Level 7	I can understand how environmental decisions affect the people that live there. I can explain how environmental consequences can lead to conflict.
Level 8	I can analyse the causes and consequences environmental issues and how to tackle them. I can use specific case study detail in my answers. I can critically evaluate sources of evidence.