

Leaves as thermometers

Leaf shape changes with climate.
Generally smoother leaves are found in warmer climates and more jagged leaves are found in cooler climates.

Carefully look at the cards showing fossilised leaves.

Put the cards into order, starting with the one that shows leaves from the warmest climate. Finish with the one that indicates the coolest climate.

Stick the cards into the boxes

Warmest at the top

Coolest at the bottom
